TeKay Designs eclectic African and ethnic bridal, formal, casual clothing collection was featured at the Fashion Show and Cook out hosted by the Rice African Student Association on April 23, 2011 within McMurry College at Rice University.

The careful attention to detail and quality that encompasses TeKay Designs' clothing is simply amazing. The embroidery, designs, material, style, and originality all came together to make one feel truly like a queen when wearing the clothes. At the fashion show, everyone was so impressed with how elegant and fashionable traditional African clothing can be, as well as to how the clothing flatters the variety of the models' shaped, further showing the versatility of TeKay Designs. Michelle Sam, Rice African Fashion Show Coordinator 2011.

Sponsors of the fashion show included TeKay Designs, Kachi, TC, Safari Couture, Franklin Beauty School, Finger Licking Food, Blue Nile, Sheba Cafe and Bon Appetit. Performers included the University of Houston Nigerian Student Association dance team and Intuitive African and Dance Drum Culture.
